

Continuing education credits CEUs

Colorado: The Colorado Judicial Department Office of Language Access has approved the Preconference Seminars (Nov. 4) for three (3) continuing education credits per session and the Conference Sessions (Nov. 5-7) for one (1) continuing education credit per one (1) hour of instruction. Interpreters must comply with requirements to include submission of compliance form as per established policy.” MORE: https://www.courts.state.co.us/Administration/Custom.cfm?Unit=interp&Page_ID=116

Delaware: The Delaware Court Interpreter Program has approved the Preconference Seminars (Nov. 4) for 1 continuing education credit /hour (maximum 3 credits) and the Conference Sessions (Nov. 5-7) for up to twelve (12) continuing education credit-hours. Credit will only be given consideration for attending designated topics and language-specific sessions which are in compliance with Delaware Court Interpreting Program. Proof of attendance must be submitted to the Program Coordinator within 30 days. MORE: <http://courts.delaware.gov/aoc/courtinterpreter>

Florida: The Florida Court Interpreter Certification and Regulation Program has approved the Conference Sessions (Nov. 4-7) for up to 20 Continuing Interpreter Education credits. Credit will be given for participation in educational activities that are relevant to the work of the courts, enhances the individual participant’s ability to perform his or her work as an interpreter in compliance with Florida policy requirements. Verification of attendance is required with CIE reporting form at the time of biennial renewal. MORE: <http://www.flcourts.org/resources-and-services/court-services/court-interpreters.stml>

IMIA: The International Medical Interpreters Association (IMIA) has approved Preconference Seminar H for 0.3 CEUs and each of the following conference sessions are approved for 0.1 CEUs: F-7, I-2, I-7, I-6, I-9, J-6, MED-3, MED-5, MED-8, N-2, S-1. The conference sessions have been approved for a maximum 0.8 CEUs. Proof of attendance is required for credit to be given in accordance to IMIA established guidelines. MORE: <http://imiaweb.org/education/receiveceu.asp>

Kentucky: The Kentucky Administrative Office of the Courts has approved the Preconference Seminars (Nov. 4) and the Conference sessions (Nov 5-7) for one (1) continuing education credit for each one (1) hour of lecture, session, workshop and lectures related to language, law and specialized interpreting topics attended. Interpreters will need to submit proof of attendance and continuing education approval form to the Kentucky Administrative Office of the Courts to be considered to receive credit accordingly.” MORE: <http://courts.ky.gov/courtprograms/CIS/Pages/default.aspx>

Nebraska: The Nebraska Administrative Office of the Courts-Court Interpreter Program has the program sessions of the ATA 56th Annual Conference under review to determine approval for continuing education credits. Continuing education credit will be considered in accordance to established rules and requirements. MORE: <https://supremecourt.nebraska.gov/4859/interpreter-project>

New Mexico: The New Mexico Administrative Office of the Courts has approved the Preconference Seminars (Nov. 4) for three (3) continuing education credits per seminar and the Conference Sessions (Nov. 5-7) for one (1) continuing education credit per approved session. Credit will only be given for attending sessions which have topics relevant to court procedures, and court interpreting. Verification of attendance must be provided. MORE: <https://languageaccess.nmcourts.gov/index.php/for-interpreters.html>

Ohio: The Language Services Program at the Supreme Court of Ohio has approved the Preconference Seminars (Nov. 4) for six (6) continuing interpreter education (CIE) credit hours and the Conference Sessions (Nov. 5-7) for sixteen (16) continuing interpreter education (CIE) credit hours. Proof of attendance is required and credit will only be given in accordance to established guidelines. MORE: <http://www.supremecourt.ohio.gov/JCS/interpreterSvcs/>

Oregon: Oregon Court Language Access Services has pre-approved the Preconference Seminars (Nov.4) and the conference sessions (Nov. 5-7) for continuing education credits (CEUs) according to Oregon policy requirements. Interpreters will need to provide proof of attendance, course description, and number of contact hours upon completion of the conference to Court Interpreter Services. Credit will only be given for attending educational sessions which meet policy requirements. Please contact the Oregon Judicial Department's Certification and Training Program for more details.

MORE: <http://courts.oregon.gov/OJD/OSCA/cpsd/InterpreterServices/Pages/index.aspx>

Pennsylvania: The Pennsylvania Court Interpreter Certification Program has approved the Preconference Seminars (Nov. 4) and the Conference Sessions (Nov. 5-7) for up to twelve (12) continuing education credits. Credit will only be awarded for attending educational sessions, not business sessions. Submission of the Continuing Education Approval form and proof of attendance to each session is required and must be submitted after attending the events.

MORE: <http://www.pacourts.us/judicial-administration/court-programs/interpreter-program/interpreter-certification/continuing-education>

Texas: The Texas Judicial Branch Certification Commission (JBCC), Office of Court Administration has approved the Preconference Seminars and the Conference Sessions (Nov. 4-7) for up to eighteen (18) continuing education credits hours and two (2) continuing education credits hours (ethics). Proof of attendance is required and compliance to JBCC statutes, rules, and policies. MORE: <http://www.txcourts.gov/jbcc/licensed-court-interpreters/continuing-education.aspx>

Tennessee: The Tennessee Administrative Office of the Courts has approved the Preconference Seminars (Nov. 4) and the Conference Sessions (Nov. 5-7) for twenty-four (24) General continuing education credits and twenty-two (22) Foreign Language continuing education credits for selected educational sessions. Proof of attendance is required and compliance to established policies Contact the Tennessee Administrative Office of the Courts. MORE: <http://www.tncourts.gov/programs/court-interpreters/resources-interpreters/continuing-education>

Utah: The Utah Administrative Office of the Court Interpreting Program has approved the Preconference Seminars (Nov. 4) and the Conference Sessions (Nov. 5-7) for one (1) continuing education credit per one (1) hour of instruction for designated topics which are in compliance with Utah policy requirements for certified court interpreters. MORE: <http://www.utcourts.gov/resources/interp>

Washington: The Washington Court Interpreter Program has approved Preconference Seminar H (Nov. 4) for three (3) continuing education credits and related conference sessions (Nov. 5-7) for up to twelve (12) continuing education credits (general credits). Proof of attendance is required and compliance to requirements, policies and procedures established by Washington Court Interpreter Program. MORE: <http://www.courts.wa.gov/interpreters>