Administrators Column
(abridged; originally published in Summer 2018 SlavFile)

Ekaterina Howard, SLD Administrator
Eugenia Tietz-Sokolskaya, SLD Assistant Administrator

Dear SLD members,

SLD Call for Nominating Committee

This is the year when we need to form a Nominating Committee to select new SLD Administrator and Assistant Administrator candidates.

If you would like to run for one of the administrator positions, but are not (yet) on the Leadership Council, please consider joining to have a better idea of the scope of work and time commitment that would be required.

Read full information about the process below.

SLD Events

SLD Annual Division Meeting is taking place on Thursday, October 25, from 4:45 pm to 5:45 pm.

SLD Dinner is happening on the same day. This year our venue is practically across the street from the hotel, just 1 minute away according to Google Maps. Read more about the SLD Dinner and the Newcomers Lunch.

Hope to see you there!

1. Call to order

Ekaterina Howard, Administrator, called the meeting to order.

2. Acceptance of agenda
3. Approval of 2016 minutes

The agenda was accepted. The 2016 minutes, previously published in SlavFile and available at http://www.ata-divisions.org/SLD/wp-content/uploads/2017/05/2016-4-Fall-SlavFile.pdf, were approved.

4. Election results

Candidate statements and election results had previously been sent out via ATA email broadcasts. This year’s elections were uncontested. Ekaterina Howard will stay on as Administrator, and Eugenia Tietz-Sokolskaya will be the Assistant Administrator.

In looking ahead to the next election cycle, Ekaterina noted that we will need a nominating committee next year, and encouraged new volunteers for the Leadership Council. She pointed out that Leadership Council members are the primary source of nominees for the Administrator/Assistant Administrator positions.

5. Summary of 2017 SLD activities

Ekaterina handed out index cards and requested that audience members use them to provide feedback on prior activities as well as ideas for next year’s activities. SLD’s 2017 activities included:
- SlavFile – four issues
- Greiss lecture – Ekaterina thanked Nora Favorov for arranging the Greiss Lecture.
- ATA events: old (SLD Dinner and Newcomers Lunch) and new (sign-up sheets for going out for meals in small groups). The dinner, which took place after the conference, turned out to be a great success this year – everyone was pleased with the menu and the venue. However, the sign-up sheets for going out to other restaurants in small groups did not generate sufficient participation.
- SLD ATA Certification Exam Practice Group was started
  - The French Language Division wants to develop its own certification exam practice group modeled after ours
- SLD Facebook group was started
- SLD website has moved to WordPress. Eugenia Tietz-Sokolskaya has volunteered to be the webmaster, taking over from Zhenya Tumanova, whose efforts have been most appreciated.
- SLD blog is becoming more active. Eugenia Tietz-Sokolskaya has volunteered to be the blog editor.

6. Planned SLD activities for 2018 and Call for Volunteers

- SlavFile – Seeking Intern Editor(s) to participate in preparation of SlavFile issues, work with the editorial team on submissions, get an overview of the editorial process, and contribute to SlavFile development. Lydia Stone, the current longtime editor of SlavFile, would like to begin training someone to take her place. It was announced that Lauren Cammenga had volunteered and been accepted for this position.
- SLD website and blog – Eugenia reported that she is seeking volunteers as follows:
  - Blog contributors: to post at any time throughout the year – non-Russian entries would be especially welcome
  - to submit member profiles
  - to write a regular column
  - to review ATA sessions outside of the Slavic languages track
  - Chronicle + SlavFile researcher to find articles and resources relevant to scheduled blog posts, articles of interest for linking to
- Social media groups – These have few users and are not a core division function, not the main way in which people get division information. Seeking short-term contributors to Twitter, Facebook, and/or LinkedIn:
  - "Take over" the SLD account in any of these platforms for a limited period of time to post content of interest based on specialist area (resources, glossaries, favorite content, etc.)
  - Post translation advice for a specific language pair for a specific period of time

- Conference events: newcomers lunch and annual dinner
  - Larry Bogoslaw suggested bringing back the tradition of a musical evening/singalong. This could be a separate event or be done at the banquet. It was noted that the event would be multilingual/multicultural. Larry will bring a guitar; others are welcome to bring music, lyrics, etc.
  - Particularly if we do the singalong as part of the banquet, we would need to have a separate room for the entire evening.
  - It was requested that the division meeting and the dinner be on different days – but the dinner is fixed on Thursday so as not to clash with the After Hours Café, and while we can express a preference for our division meeting date, the schedule is ultimately assigned by the conference organizer.
  - Ekaterina is seeking someone local to New Orleans to help with restaurant selection for the newcomers’ lunch and SLD dinner events there.

- Conference sessions
  - Ekaterina noted that all invited speakers this year were required to give two lectures. This meant that the Greiss lecture took up two slots from the SLD’s dwindling number of slots. One option would be to split the slots with another division – e.g., this year’s lectures could have been double-billed with the Interpreters Division – with each division sacrificing one slot. Jen Guernsey noted that in the division administrators meeting, a number of divisions (including the SLD) expressed dismay at the two-lecture requirement. Ted Wozniak, who will be the conference organizer for the next two years, was at that meeting and was made aware of the concerns. He indicated a willingness to review the requirement.
  - Ekaterina is seeking a Conference Organizer (Leadership Council member) to:
    - identify areas of interest and specific topics of interest for potential session submissions
    - identify potential presenters
    - contact potential presenters and encourage them to submit a proposal
- if no potential presenters have been identified for specific topics, conduct research or publish calls for presenters via SLD content channels
- encourage speakers to submit proposals or collaborate to submit a panel discussion proposal
- track proposal success
- suggest alternative means of presenting for those whose proposals were not selected (such as the SLD blog)

SLD practice group – Eugenia reported that she is seeking volunteers as follows:

- Reviewers for En<>Ru, En<>Uk (certified in those language pairs): to answer questions/review suggested options once a month. Reviewers are not expected to review full translations.
- Administrators for Slack channels to help out with administrative tasks: compile questions for reviewers, update lists of participants, send schedule reminders.

Outreach to Slavic translation associations – Ekaterina requested a volunteer to manage this new effort, and Tom Fennell volunteered.

- Establish contact with Slavic language translation associations
- Establish contact with Slavic conference organizers
- Identify scope and channels of collaboration
- Identify and implement common projects.

SLD listserv – Ekaterina proposed starting an SLD-wide listserv open to SLD members only. While this listserv would be similar to the Russian Translators and South Slavic Yahoo groups that currently exist, they would not be Slavic language specific and would allow Division members to communicate directly about issues not relevant to participants in the other groups who do not belong to SLD or ATA. An informal survey of members present confirmed that very few of us get our division news through social media channels or the website, but mainly rely on division emails sent by ATA listserv would be an easy way for Division administrators to send information and updates. The members present voted in favor of creating an SLD listserv.

Conference newcomers were invited to introduce themselves, and several did so. They were also encouraged to submit a brief profile of themselves to Lauren Cammenga (lacammenga@gmail.com) for publication in the SlavFile’s newcomers’ column. Newcomers to the Division who did not attend the conference are encouraged to do the same, of course.

8. Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned.
